More of PKR's elected representatives have come out to voice support for party vice-president Azmin Ali to contest for the deputy presidency.

At a press conference in Shah Alam today, 13 of the party's state assemblypersons pledged their support for Azmin, stating he was the best person for the job.

None led by Yaakob Sapari (Kota Anggerik), the group includes nine state assemblypersons from Selangor and four from Negeri Sembilan.

Present at the press conference were Selangor state assemblypersons Dr Xavier Jeyakumar (Sri Andalas), Amirudin Shari (Batu Caves), Nik Nazmi Ahmad (Seri Setia) and Shuhaimi Shafiei (Sri Muda).

Other Selangor PKR lawmakers in the group but were absent are Roziah Ismail (Batu Tiga), Gan Pei Nei (Rawang), Lee Kim Sin (Kajang) and Haniza Talha (Taman Medan).

The four Negeri Sembilan PKR lawmakers from the group are Aminuddin Harun (Sikamat), Rashid Latif (Ampangan), M Ravi (Port Dickson) and Chai Tong Chai (Chuah).
