

Ibrahim Ali has an election strategy in mind
Malaysiakini.com
September 12, 2010

Pasir Mas parliamentarian Ibrahim Ali said today he may cooperate with other parties besides Umno and PAS or set up a party to contest in the next general election.

"I know that PAS or Umno may not accept me and some other parties are also distancing themselves from me because I am in Perkasa," said the president of Perkasa, a right-wing Malay group, adding that he had a strategy.

Ibrahim Ali press conference at his home in Taman Melawati
Ibrahim had won the Pasir Mas parliamentary seat in the 2008 general election contesting on a PAS ticket.

Kelantan PAS election machinery director Abdul Fatah Haron said yesterday Kelantan PAS would not allow Ibrahim to stand on a PAS ticket in the next general election.

Ibrahim said he would not have any difficulty contesting in a Malay-majority constituency in the country.

"Sixty-two per cent of the parliamentary constituencies in the country are Malay-majority areas," he said at his Aidilfitri open house held in the compound of the Pasir Mas railway station.

- Bernama

Copyright © 1999-2007 Mkini Dotcom Sdn. Bhd.
Source : <http://www.malaysiakini.com/news/142491>