Kelantan BN will appoint a special officer next month to manage the registration of new voters among its members, the state party chairperson Mustapa Mohamed said.

"It is hoped that this will help increase the number of new voters among members of BN component parties," he told reporters after chairing the Kelantan BN meeting in Kota Bharu today.

All Kelantan BN component party leaders, including representatives of the Siamese community, attended the trimonthly meeting.

Mustapa said the meeting also decided that the Wanita movements from all BN component parties organise joint programmes to explain current issues to members and the people as a whole.

"Previously, they conducted their programme separately, but now, they have to do it together," he said.
