Malaysian Makkal Sakti Party president R S Thanenthiran today advised party members not to attend and extraordinary meeting (EGM) of the party called for by some members on Saturday, Sept 25, saying it was not valid.

He said some disgruntled members and leaders who had been expelled from the party were behind the move in calling the EGM.

"Their agenda is to cause confusion that the party is facing a leadership crisis," he told Bernama here today.

He added that BN secretary-general Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor in a meeting with him on Monday, had also informed him that he would not be attending the EGM.
