Johor Bahru Umno Youth today called for Hindu Rights Action Force (Hindraf) chief P Waythamoorthy to be denied entry into the country for having allegedly disputed a statement made by the Sultan of Johor, Sultan Ibrahim Almarhum Sultan Iskandar.

Its head, Khalid Mohamad, said Waythamoorthy's statement on the FreeMalaysiaToday website was inexcusable because it seemed like he was questioning the powers vested in the Malay rulers.

"We will ask the government to deny the Hindraf chairman entry into the country and to close down the FreeMalaysiaToday website as it is a threat to national security," he said.

Khalid spoke to reporters after leading a peaceful demonstration by 200 people in a protest against the statement by the Hindraf leader, who is based in the United Kingdom, at the Larkin public transport terminal in Johor Bahru.

He said the demonstration was to remind the people not to question the powers vested in the Malay rulers and the special privileges of the Malays enshrined in the Federal Constitution.

The sultan had on Oct 4 reminded all quarters not to question the powers of the rulers and the special privileges of the Malays as enshrined in the federal constitution.
