Nurul Izzah Anwar has qualified to join the PKR deputy presidency race after intervention by the party political bureau last night.

PKR secretary-general Saifuddin Nasution (right) said that the political bureau had decided to accept nominations from the Sempoerna division, which arrived at the headquarters a day after the Oct 10 deadline.

According to Saifuddin, a total of six late nomination forms have been accepted.

The Sempoerna and several other divisions had yesterday claimed that they were unaware of the deadline and raised questions of a possible conspiracy to stop her from contesting for the position.

Should Nurul Izzah join the race, she is expected to face Zaid Ibrahim, outgoing vice-presidents Azmin Ali and Mustaffa Kamil Ayub.

Zaid had previously stated that he will bow out of the race to support Nurul Izzah, should she accept nominations.
