Deputy Prime Minister Muhyiddin Yassin is scheduled to make a two-day visit beginning tomorrow to the Limbang and Lawas districts in northern Sarawak.

An Information Department statement said he is scheduled to arrive in Limbang tomorrow evening and will attend a dinner with the people at the Limbang community hall.

Sarawak Chief Minister Abdul Taib Mahmud and other state VIPs will also attend the event, it said.

The following day, Muhyiddin is scheduled to attend a briefing on development at the office of the Limbang Resident.

Then, he is scheduled to visit Lawas, the northernmost district in Sarawak, to attend a meet-the-people session at the Lawas indoor stadium.

Muhyiddin, who is also education minister, will visit several schools in Limbang and Lawas, the statement said.
