Malay rights pressure group Perkasa has labled PKR president Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail a "political prostitute" for calling for the abandonment of the ketuanan Melayu (Malay supremacy) concept.

NONECommenting on Wan Azizah's speech at the PKR national delegates congress on Saturday, Perkasa Youth chief Arman Azha Abu Hanifah (left) said she and her newly-elected deputy Azmin Ali - who fully backs her call - are "traitors" to the Malay race.

"Wan Azizah and Azmin are the by-products or success stories of the (ketuanan Melayu) concept which led to many Malays seeing success," he said.

"They are like kacang lupakan kulit (someone who forgets their origins). They are political prostitutes who will do anything to get Indian and Chinese support."

He urged the Malay rulers to banish any Malay who is against ketuanan Melayu, which he argued is a concept designed to also safeguard the rulers' rights.

He said that Wan Azizah's speech is also a insult to the rulers.

NONEArman Azha said that there is a misconception that ketuanan Melayu means that other races are subjects of the Malays.

"What we want is for other races to respect the social contract and know the country's history," he said.

He added that Perkasa is not a racist or right-wing organisation, but one which respects the federal constitution.

Its main cause is to ensure that the rights of Malays are respected by all races, he added.
