Police today reminded the public not to attend a PKR rally in Taman Melati, Kuala Lumpur tomorrow as no permit has been issued for it.

Sentul police chief ACP Zakaria Pagan said police did not approve the permit to avoid traffic congestion in the area and disruption of public order.

"Police will take action against those who participate in the illegal rally," Bernama quoted him as saying.

The rally is said will be held at 9pm at the night market compound in Taman Melati, Wangsa Maju.

Opposition leader Anwar Ibrahim was scheduled to give his speech there.
