Deputy Prime Minister Muhyiddin Yassin said the opposition's attempt to sour his ties with Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak is a desperate act to topple Umno and BN.

"My ties with the prime minister are still strong despite the opposition's attempt to split us," he said at a Juara Rakyat programme in Machang, Kelantan, today.

The Kelantan Umno and BN function to hand out compensation payment to poor students was attended by some 5,000 people.

The deputy prime minister said he had faith in Najib who managed to settle the political and economic problems faced by the country.

"The political situation became unstable when BN lost five states in the 2008 general election but things have since stabilised.

"The opposition is desperate as its weaknesses have been exposed. The people realised that they have been cheated by the opposition."

Muhyiddin said Najib's bold move to give a RM67bil economic stimulus package helped Malaysia overcome the effects of the global crisis.

"Things have stabilised and countries like China and Japan have started buying our products.

"The prime minister expects the economy to grow five to six percent this year," he added.
