DUNGUN – Go ahead and report to the MACC. This was the challenge Terengganu Menteri Besar Ahmad Said threw at the opposition.

He said he was not worried about the opposition's suspicions on misuse of power in the state's expenditure as it has supporting documents to back it up.

The Terengganu assembly sitting last week approved an additional RM158mil budget allocation, bringing the total to over RM2bil, which is the highest among the states.

The extra funds would be used to develop the state and help the people, said Ahmad.

The money would also fund welfare programmes, affordable housing for the people and providing e-books to students in the state, he said yesterday during a meeting with Dungun school teachers at the Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Paka here.
