

DAP appalled with MCMC's decision

The government's action to charge Irwan Abdul Rahman, known as blogger "Hassan Skodeng", in court for his satirical writing is not only harsh but ridiculous.

Does this mean a satire or a joke is now illegal in Malaysia? What has become of our country?

Have we forgotten about our great satirist Ishak Haji Muhammad, better known as Pak Sako, whose great works such as "Putera Gunung Tahan" and "Anak Mat Lela Gila" had managed to rile up the spirit of nationalism among the Malays and Malayans against the British colonial masters during the fight for Independence?
