KOTA BARU – Gua Musang Member of Parliament Tengku Razaleigh Hamzah, who is presently overseas, said he is not making any decision on his role in the Galas by-election.

"I have not said yes or no. I will clarify once I'm back in Malaysia," he tweeted on his Twitter account on Friday.

Tengku Razaleigh was appointed Barisan Nasional (BN) election director for the by-election on Wednesday.

The Galas seat fell vacant with the death of assemblyman Chek Hashim Sulaima, 46, of PAS, from cancer on Sept 27 in Kuala Lumpur.

Kelantan Umno chief Mustapa Mohamed was appointed deputy director of the by-election.

In the 2008 general election, Chek Hashim defeated Mohamad Saufi Deraman of the BN with a 646 vote majority in the state seat. — Bernama
