KUALA LUMPUR - DAP stalwart Lim Kit Siang filed a defamation suit against New Straits Times Press (M) Bhd over a report published by its Malay-language daily Berita Harian which accused him for seditious remarks.

The suit was filed by senior lawyer Karpal Singh at the High Court on Monday.

He claimed that the article, quoting Malacca Chief Minister Mohd Ali Rustam, contained words accusing him of uttering defamatory remarks against Umno members during a ceramah in Galas.

However, Lim claimed he never uttered those words, nor was he present during the said ceramah.
