KUALA LUMPUR – S. Samy Vellu said today that he will be announcing on Dec 13 details of his resignation as MIC president.

The 74-year-old leader said he looked forward to stepping down as MIC president as it would give him plenty of time to spend with his family, friends and also the community.

"On that particular day (Dec 13), I will also announce what my plans are after I step down from the party," he told reporters after opening the Malaysian Hindu Youth Council's 46th annual general meeting here.

Also present was Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Department T. Murugiah.

In his speech, Samy Vellu urged Indian youth to think afresh in order to be competitive.

According to Bernama, he said proper guidance from the family and also relevant organisations would help Indian youth in building a better future for themselves.
