PETALING JAYA - The Yayasan 1Malaysia website became a target of hackers on Monday after its homepage was replaced by a slogan which states 'Saya sudah berjaya. Anda bila lagi? (I've succeeded. When's your turn?)'

The words 'AhliSyurgaCrew was Here? again?' was shown at the bottom of the slogan, along with an image showing a man dressed in a red tuxedo.

When clicked on the image, a new webpage opened directing to the website, Dr Rozmey: Herba Prima Marketing.

yayasan_website_hacked_2It was reported by Free Malaysia Today earlier that the homepage glared an anti-Malaysian slogan, which read "Ganyang Malaysia" (Destroy Malaysia) and showed an unknown Chinese man standing in front of the American flag.

Yayasan 1Malaysia's chairperson Chandra Muzaffar told the news website that that he had not checked the website in the past few days, and was unaware of the change.

"I will ring up my office and find out," he was quoted as saying.
