He received the 45-page letter from the party dated Dec 31, 2010 by fax at his office at noon today.

Gobalakrishnan, who is also Member of Parliament for Padang Serai, said he was asked to explain his actions to PKR within seven days from the date of the letter.

He said the deadline was unfair and unreasonable as he was left with only three days to reply the letter.

"I will submit a letter to PKR president Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail tomorrow, asking her to give me 45 days to reply the letter as I have to go through the allegations levelled against me," he told Bernama today.

Gobalakrishnan was taken to task for criticising PKR advisor Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim for allegedly ordering the closure of the Sivan temple in Petaling Jaya.
