PUTRAJAYA – The Barisan Nasional (BN) will announce its candidate for the Tenang by-election on Wednesday, said BN secretary-general Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor.

Bernamea quoted him as saying that Johor Mentri Besar Abdul Ghani Othman, who is also the coalition's election director for the by-election, had submitted several names to Prime Minister and BN chairman Najib Abdul Razak for consideration.

Speaking to reporters here today, Tengku Adnan, however, declined to reveal who were in the shortlist.

Nomination for the by-election, which is being called following the death of its incumbent Sulaiman Taha, 59, of the BN on Dec 17 due to blood infection and diabetes, is on Thursday (Jan 20) while polling has been set for Jan 30.

Earlier, Tengku Adnan, who is also the MP for Putrajaya, had presented agricultural aid including fertiliser, farming equipment, catfish fry and a tractor contributed by Tabung Ekonomi Kumpulan Usaha Niaga (TEKUN) to participants of a community farming project in Precinct 9 here.
