KUALA LUMPUR -- Bukit Gelugor Member of Parliament (MP) Karpal Singh should stop coming up with indefensible statements to justify his u-turn for the sake of political expediency, said Wangsa Maju MP Wee Choo Keong.

He said Karpal should stand by what he had said, otherwise he would be known as a "Gutless Tiger of the past".

"The self-styled Tiger of Jelutong should immediately stop prowling with the predominant purpose of misleading Malaysians with his politics of expediency," he said in his latest entry entitled 'Is it a Tiger with forked tongue?' in his blog www.weechookeong.wordpress.com here today.

Wee, who is an Independent MP, said Karpal had accused that the then Deputy Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim was involved in sodomy on Oct 22, 1997, and in early 1998, Karpal proudly proclaimed in the DAP ceramah in the Federal Hotel that he had evidence in his hand that Anwar was involved in sodomy.

"These two glaring facts were enough to show that Karpal, who is also a lawyer, must have fully studied and was satisfied with the evidence he got from Azizan Abu Bakar, Umi Hafilda and others for him to pursue against Anwar and demanded that he be charged," Wee added.

On his previous entry, Wee had called on the DAP chairman to offer himself as a witness in the sodomy trial of Anwar as he was a credible "character witness" for Anwar.
