Kuala Lumpur -- The Gabungan Anti Penyelewengan Selangor (GAPS) or Selangor Anti-Irregularities Coalition said it believed it was true that DAP chairman Karpal Singh had proof of Opposition Leader Anwar Ibrahim's sexual misconduct as stated by him in 1997.

GAPS chairman Hamizun Khairuddin said it was unlikely that Karpal was lying when he disclosed at the Dewan Rakyat sitting at that time that he had proof of the PKR advisor's involvement in sexual misconduct.

"That is why Anwar has been friendly with Karpal and the DAP (to prevent his alleged sexual misconduct from being exposed). That is why too Anwar is forced to listen to DAP, whereby Anwar is like the music conductor while the music and lyrics have been written by DAP," said the former Selangor PKR Youth head.

He said the same type of (PKR-DAP) relationship was being mirrored by the Selangor government.

On the reported statement by former PKR Youth exco member Zamil Ibrahim today, which questioned Anwar's financial capacity and who had been sponsoring his overseas trips and stay as luxury hotels, Hamizun said Anwar's financial sources might have come from foreign investors investing in states controlled by the DAP-PKR-PAS pact.
