SHAH ALAM -- DAP's Teresa Kok has taken Prime Minister, Najib Tun Razak to task over the existence of a full-fledged "F.L.O.M Division" or "First Lady of Malaysia Division" in the Prime Minister's Office.

Back in November 2010, Najib had stated that Rosmah Mansor has no staff of her own in the Prime Minister's Office in his parliamentary answer to Bukit Bendera MP Liew Chin Tong in Dewan Rakyat.

"Najib's statement has now been proven to be a pack of lies with the discovery that there exists a "F.L.O.M (First Lady of Malaysia) Division" in the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) dedicated to serving Rosmah Mansor as evidenced by the PMO's very own staff directory web page." the Seputeh MP said in a statement issued today.

"The fact that the web page was suddenly removed 2-3 days ago upon being criticized by the public makes the existence of this Division all the more suspicious." she continued.

Kok added "This F.L.O.M Division is a full-fledged unit. It has 6 staff members, same in stature as the PMO's Media Division, Policy & Research Division, SMPKE (ICT) Division, and is even larger in size than the Economy Division which is supposedly of prime importance to Najib."

The gutsy DAP lady is now demanding that Najib come clean on this issue and to take responsibility for misleading the Dewan Rakyat and Malaysians in general.

""First Lady" Rosmah Mansor must also explain to the public why she has stood silent and allowed Najib's lie to proceed, making her complicit to his deceitfulness." she demanded.
