BESUT - PAS president Abdul Hadi Awang is confident of the opposition's chances at Sarawak's 10th state election.

"It is not impossible for voters to go for change. This is based on result of Sibu by-election in May last year which DAP won, he said after giving a talk at Sungai Jerteh here today.

Sarawak Chief Minister Abdul Taib Mahmud yesterday announced that the Sarawak State Legislative Assembly will be dissolved tomorrow.

PKR deputy president Azmin Ali and DAP deputy chairman Dr Tan Seng Giaw were also present at the talk.

Asked about his sister Umami Hafilda's claim that he was blinded by sweet promises of PKR adviser Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, he said:

"The opposition is focused in our struggle and it is up to our opponent to use such tactic."
