KUCHING -- Barisan Nasional (BN) candidates for the 10th Sarawak state election will be announced tomorrow, said Chief Minister Abdul Taib Mahmud.

Taib, who is also the state BN chairman, said the announcement would be made at 3pm at the Parti Pesaka Bumiputera Bersatu Sarawak (PBB), here.

"I have a meeting tomorrow morning. The announcement (of the candidates) is at 3pm," he said briefly to reporters after opening a programme at the Sukma Ria grounds, Petra Jaya, here today.

Also present at the function were Taib's wife, Ragad Waleed Al-Kurdi, and State Housing and Urban Development Minister Abang Johari Tun Openg.

Yesterday, Taib had a meeting with Prime Minister Najib Tun Razak in Putrajaya, where he was believed to have handed over the list of BN candidates for the state election.

The election for the 71 Sarawak state constituencies will be held on April 16 while nomination day will be on April 6.
