SIBU - DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng declined to comment on the view expressed by blogger Raja Petra Kamaruddin that Parti Keadilan Rakyat advisor Anwar Ibrahim has lost credibility as a leader.

Lim, who is Penang Chief Minister, said he had no time to watch Raja Petra's exclusive interview with TV3.

"I had no chance to watch the interview. I don't know what to comment," he said.

In the interview aired last night, Raja Petra said that Anwar lost credibility when he failed to take over the government on Sept 16 2008 as promised.

On the sex video that allegedly featured an opposition leader, Lim said: "Let me watch the video, then I will comment".

On the DAP performance in the Sarawak state election tomorrow, Lim said he believed there was a strong mood for change.
