BEIJING -- Malaysian Deputy Prime Minister Muhyiddin Yassin arrived here today to begin a week-long official visit to China.

The special aircraft carrying Muhyiddin and his wife, Noorainee Abdul Rahman, landed at the Beijing international airport at about 3pm.

Muhyiddin and Noorainee were received by Malaysian Ambassador to China Iskandar Sarudin and embassy officials.

This is Muhyiddin's first official visit to China as the deputy prime minister.

The visit, which will also take Muhyiddin to Shanghai and Guangzhou, is at the invitation of Vice Premier of China's State Council Li Keqiang.
