KUALA LUMPUR -- Umno secretary-general Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor chided Opposition leader Anwar Ibrahim for calling Prime Minister Najib Tun Razak by an animal's name.

He said a right-thinking human being would not use an animal's name to call another person.

"I am baffled why he (Anwar) used the word. I don't understand why he uses such a word," he told a media conference at his office here yesterday.

He was commenting on an online media report (Free Malaysia Today) which claimed that Anwar had used the word when referring to the Prime Minister during a ceramah in Klang on Sunday.

Tengku Adnan said he was disappointed with Anwar for being irrational in evaluating Najib's leadership as prime minister.

"He (Anwar) did so intentionally to divert attention from accusations he is facing," he added.

He said Umno would not ask Anwar to apologise or resort to the same.

Tengku Adnan said Najib had done his level best to make Malaysia a country not only for the Malays, but other races as well.
