KOTA BAHARU -- PAS spiritual advisor Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat said he is not ready to accept the DAP's call for Pakatan Rakyat-led states not to dissolve their respective state assemblies if the general election is called this year.

The Kelantan Menteri Besar said this was because no formal decision had been reached on the matter among the opposition leadership.

Nik Abdul Aziz told Bernama this here on Wednesday.

DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng said yesterday that the party's central executive committee had agreed that Penang, Selangor, Kedah and Kelantan should not dissolve their state assemblies if the general election was held this year.

Meanwhile, in Ipoh, Perak Menteri Besar Dr Zambry Abdul Kadir said the DAP's view showed that it was not confident of retaining power in the four states in question.
