GUA MUSANG -- Umno members need to start gearing up for the next general election to ensure that the defeat in several states during the previous election does not recur, said Gua Musang Member of Parliament Tengku Razaleigh Hamzah.

He said preparation was vital to face the coming general election, which was regarded as the most challenging in the history of the party's struggles so far.

"Umno members cannot depend solely on a strong spirit to go against the opposition, but instead try to achieve a big win through hard work.

"Only Prime Minister Najib Razak can determine what happens during the election, but as party members we also need to launch our machinery starting now," he said when opening the Gua Musang Umno delegates meeting at Balai Rakyat, Bukit Chekati, here yesterday.

The Gua Musang Umno chief added that in order to win back various states, party members also need to be sincere in fighting for the party instead of struggling for personal interests which can weaken the cause.
