GEORGE TOWN -- Penang Gerakan Chief Dr Teng Hock Nan wants the government to punish the president of Pertubuhan Pribumi Perkasa Malaysia (Perkasa) Ibrahim Ali because he frequently makes racial statements that cause tension, uneasiness and stress to the Chinese community.

Teng, who is also the Gerakan vice-president, said the government should immediately take steps, especially during this politically challenging time, to stop any individual or organization from making racist statements.

"The government should punish him and charge him under the Sedition Act, all the racist statements can stoke tension and affect the peace and harmony of the nation," he said in a statement released here today.

Ibrahim recently announced that Perkasa would hold a demonstration to counter the planned Berish 2.0 street rally on July 9, and had called on the Chinese to stock up on food "as anything can happen".

Teng also urged all Malaysians to support Prime Minister Najib Tun Razak's approach of moderation as the way forward and for the nation and people to continue to progress.
