

Ju Anya Corke Denies Claims Of Bloggers MalaysianMirror.com

October 21, 2011

By Anya Corke

In response to recent news reports, I wish to clarify that my photo was misappropriated without my knowledge or consent, when in fact I have never been victimized in any way by this boy or his family.

I wish to convey my shock and dismay at this incident, and hope that it will not recur.

I have not visited Malaysia for seven years. I have never met or even heard of any of the people involved. I have never been physically assaulted in any way.

The only way in which my "modesty was outraged" has been the publication of my picture in connection with these scurrilous and unfounded rumours. Needless to say, I am totally baffled as to how this even happened.

I would also like to express my sympathies to the boy who was defamed by these baseless allegations.

Last but not least, I hope that members of the public and the Malaysian media will respect my privacy and refrain from making unsolicited contact with me and my family, college, chess federation, and any other affiliation.

ANYA CORKE - October 20, 2011, EST (Eastern Standard Time)

(The views expressed above belongs to the author in its entirety and does not represent the opinion of Malaysian Mirror in any way)

Copyright © 2011 www.malaysianmirror.com

Source: <http://www.malaysianmirror.com/media-buzz-detail/6-nation/55305>