The statement by DAP National Chairman Karpal Singh claiming that only Anwar Ibrahim is fit to be Pakatan Rakyat's candidate for Prime Minister was only made to deceive the people.

DAP keeps telling the people that Anwar Ibrahim is Pakatan Rakyat's choice for Prime Minister and there were also some DAP leaders who said that should the opposition take over the federal government, Lim Guan Eng will be the Deputy Prime Minister.

However, their claims were never supported or approved by PAS.

While Pakatan Rakyat did say that Anwar Ibrahim is their candidate for Prime Minister after the General Elections in 2008, PAS later claimed that their President, Hadi Awang, was more qualified to hold that position than Anwar Ibrahim.

After that statement by PAS, no other Pakatan Rakyat leader brought up the subject again.

Also, when Anwar Ibrahim released a statement saying that DAP's Lim Kit Siang will be appointed as the Deputy Prime Minister if Pakatan Rakyat takes over the federal government, PAS replied that Lim Kit Siang must be a Muslim first causing Anwar Ibrahim to change his stand.

However, DAP still chooses to trust in Anwar Ibrahim and to support him.
