As DAP Perak Secretary Nga Kor Ming and DAP Deputy Secretary General Dr R Ramasamy will face the DAP disciplinary board on 16 February 2013, on charges that the former has abused his position when he was a Perak exco member in 2008.

However, the Pantai Remis state assemblyman still does not want to own up to the fact that for his wife's company Ethan and Elton to be awarded the tailoring contract for 24 lounge suits for Ipoh City Council despite bidding at the highest price of RM650 per piece over other competitors' prices ranging from RM450~580, public suspicion of cronyism or using his position to assert pressure on the selection panel is impossible to dismiss.

Merdeka Review on 6 January 2012 had reported that Nga Kor Ming had purportedly claimed that a letter dated 4 August 2008 by Ipoh City Council Corporate Director Tuan Haji Musa bin Dun to the Ipoh City Council Mayor instructing that the tailoring contract be awarded to Ethan and Elton is forged.

In that letter, Musa is purported to have said that a meeting on 3 April 2008 decided to issue the contract to Goodman Tailor. However, the new state government had influenced that the contract be given to Ethan and Elton.

If Nga Kor Ming is so certain that the letter from the Ipoh City Council is forged, I challenge him to lodge a police report declaring that the purported letter from the Ipoh City Council is a fake.

Whatever findings within the DAP disciplinary board holds no public bearing. Thus, with a police probe which involves public officials will hold merit if Nga Kor Ming's allegations are legitimate and not simple imagined defenses coughed up to cover up the maelstrom the DAP Perak Secretary now faces in the eyes of his party leaders, members and support.
