KUALA LUMPUR - Gerakan Vice President Mah Siew Keong today welcomes Shahrizat Jalil's decision to step down as the Women, Family and Community Development Minister on April 8.

"She is doing the right thing for the best interest of BN government and we are glad that she finally decided to do so," said Mah.

He said, the party interest is more important than individual interest at any time. We are now facing a tough election and we all need to focus to get the best results for Barisan National.

Mah added, Gerakan Deputy President Chang Ko Youn had also urged Shahrizat to resign early February this year for the sake of the government and Barisan Nasional as well as to resolve the endless allegation towards her on the NFC issue.
