KUALA LUMPUR - Prime Minister Najib Tun Razak says investigation on cases of negligence as reported in 2010 Auditor-General's Report is continuing.

However, Najib who is also Finance Minister said that no parties have been made officially responsible for the negligence.

"No Ministers, Deputy Ministers and officers have been made officially made responsible for failure to comply with financial regulations, management, acquisition at high prices, not value for money and missing the target," he said in a written reply to Fong Po Kuan (DAP-Batu Gajah).

Fong wanted to know how many Ministers, Deputy Ministers and officers were made responsible and specific cases and action, including investigation by the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC).

Najib said the Public Services Department (PSD) director-general had issued a letter to the secretary-general of ministries, heads of federal departments and state secretaries to follow-up action on issues raised in the report.

Other directives including action against officers involved and reporting the progress to PSD on a regular basis every two months, he added.

In a written reply to a question by Teresa Kok (DAP-Seputeh), Najib said RM137.1mil was allocated to Kuala Lumpur City Hall (DBKL) for Malaysian Road Record Information System (Marris) from 2007-2011.

"In 2007 some RM29 million was allocated, 2008 (RM30 million), 2009 (RM28.6 million), 2010 (RM30 million) and 2011 (19.5 million)," he said adding the allocations were given via the Ministry of Federal Territories and Urban Wellbeing.
