Her only crime is to defy BN by being part of Bersih 3.0 that mobilized 300,000 Malaysians in the largest peaceful gathering in Malaysian history pressing for clean, free and fair elections. BN is now seeking revenge with a tit-for-tat demonstration at her home, a gross intrusion of privacy that is condoned by both DBKL and the police.

To those who say that Ambiga should not be breaking the law, the black American nobel laureate Martin Luther King wrote,

We should never forget that everything Adolf Hitler did in Germany was "legal" and everything the Hungarian freedom fighters did in Hungary was "illegal". The willingness to accept the penalty for breaking the unjust law is what makes civil disobedience a moral act and not merely an act of law breaking.

Malaysians did not seek freedom from an undemocratic colonial rule to be replaced by another native rule that is equally undemocratic. The time has come to remove unjust laws by removing the government that propagates and perpetuates such unjust laws. Whether this can be achieved is not important. What is important is that there is a clean, free and fair electoral process that ensures the will of the people be respected whether to remove or not these unjust laws.
