

DAP Maintains Silence To Shield Anwar

I urge Opposition leader Anwar Ibrahim to come clean on accusations that he owns 20 master accounts worth RM3billion. If he is not involved in the allegations, then the PKR ketua umum should lodge a police report and come clear to the people.

Meanwhile, DAP should express its position on this allegation against Anwar, and persuade Anwar to be accountable to the rakyat. DAP cannot remain silent to shield its leaders.

Had a Barisan Nasional leader be similarly accused of amassing such funds, DAP will instantly criticise BN and fuel speculation and take a holier-than-thou stand against corruption. But now the situation has reversed. Since this allegation involves DAP's ally, the Rocket opts to turn a blind eye. This is a case of double standards. MACC should take an interest on how Anwar is alleged to have 20 master accounts with RM3billion.

Irrespective of political affiliation, when there is suspicion of graft, DAP can no longer play favouritism if the suspicion falls on one's own member. The public is keep to determine how Anwar had access to such enormous sources of income?

If Anwar is indeed innocent, he should not be alarmed if MACC begins a probe. The Rocket should not feign apathy or ignorance on this issue as Anwar is in the same political pact.

The Inland Revenue Board and MACC should commence an investigation into the unknown sources of Anwar's purported wealth as the amount mentioned is not tiny. It is also Anwar's responsibility to clarify the facts to the rakyat.
