

Briefing for students by London MIC Club

KUALA LUMPUR: The London MIC Club will have a briefing on Saturday for Malaysian Indian students leaving for Britain and Ireland.

Club president M. Kogilan said the briefing will cover aspects of studying and living in Britain.

"Students will also be made aware of the role and importance of the various student bodies such as the Malaysian Students Department and London MIC Club."

Kogilan said the briefing would be held at the Nethaji Hall at the MIC headquarters from 3pm to 6pm.
