

Success story of unity in diversity

PETALING JAYA: Several political leaders said Malaysia's multi-ethnicity is unique and that being united is the formula of the country's success.

MCA vice-president Datuk Seri Dr Chua Soi Lek said the people should be talking about the spirit of Rakyat Malaysia, and added: "Our freedom to practise our respective cultures, beliefs and religions is enshrined in the Constitution. The question of assimilation of any one race into another does not arise at all."

Citing the Barisan Nasional as a prime example of "unity in diversity", Dr Chua said it was a fact that Malaysian political parties - ruling or opposition - were still based on a racial basis.

Dr Chua said no race should have a monopoly of everything and every Malaysian had a right to participate in the country's development

MCA Youth chief Datuk Liow Tiong Lai said Johor Umno chief Datuk Abdul Chani Othman need not worry about the creation of a Bangsa Malaysia as unity among people of different races was more important

Gerakan vice-president Datuk Dr S. Vijayarajam said the Bangsa Malaysia concept did not imply a "rojak" of races, but would strengthen national unity. He said the concept did not make one any less a Malay, Chinese, Indian, Iban or a Kadazan.

Opposition Leader Lim Kit Siang described Abdul Ghani's remarks as "unMalaysian" and not in line with the Vision 2020 concept.
