KUALA LUMPUR: Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak set aside his busy programme yesterday and rushed back here from Pekan in the rain.

This was not because of any urgent work-related matter but for him to cuddle his first grandson, Mohd Nabil Mohd Nizar.

The 3.57kg boy was born at 11.28am on Friday at the Ampang Puteri Hospital here.

"This is a new beginning for me. I am thankful to God for blessing me with a healthy grandson," he said.

He spent 15 minutes with his grandson before leaving for the KL International Airport to receive Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi who was returning from London.

The baby's father is Najib's eldest son. He married Nur Sharmila Shaheen, 27, in June 2004.

"We named the baby Mohd Nabil as we wanted to maintain the 'N' tradition in our family," said Mohd Nizar, 28, an accountant. — Bernama
