

Abdullah: Practise all that is good

ALOR STAR: Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi has called on the people to be patient and not chide and talk behind' each other's back.

The Prime Minister said they must also practise good manners and "choose the good and reject

"The Government is promoting Virtues and good attitudes in a campaign,' he said before breaking fast with 3,000 people at the Al-Bukhary Mosque here last night.

He said internal bickering among Muslims could weaken the ummah.

"When our spirit is down, we will fail in our quest for excellence," he said.

"Islam only accepts principles set by Allah. We must use the best approach to resolve disputes."

Also present at the event were Kedah Mentri Besar Datuk Sen Mahdzir Khalid and Perlis Mentri Besar Datuk Seri Shahidan Kassim.

More 200 poor people received gifts from the Al-Bukhary Foundation at the event.
