

Learn secret of Tun Razak's success

NST- 4/7/2007-

KUALA LUMPUR: The late prime minister Tun Abdul Razak Hussein's secret of success in fostering unity will be revealed at a talk on July 11 here.

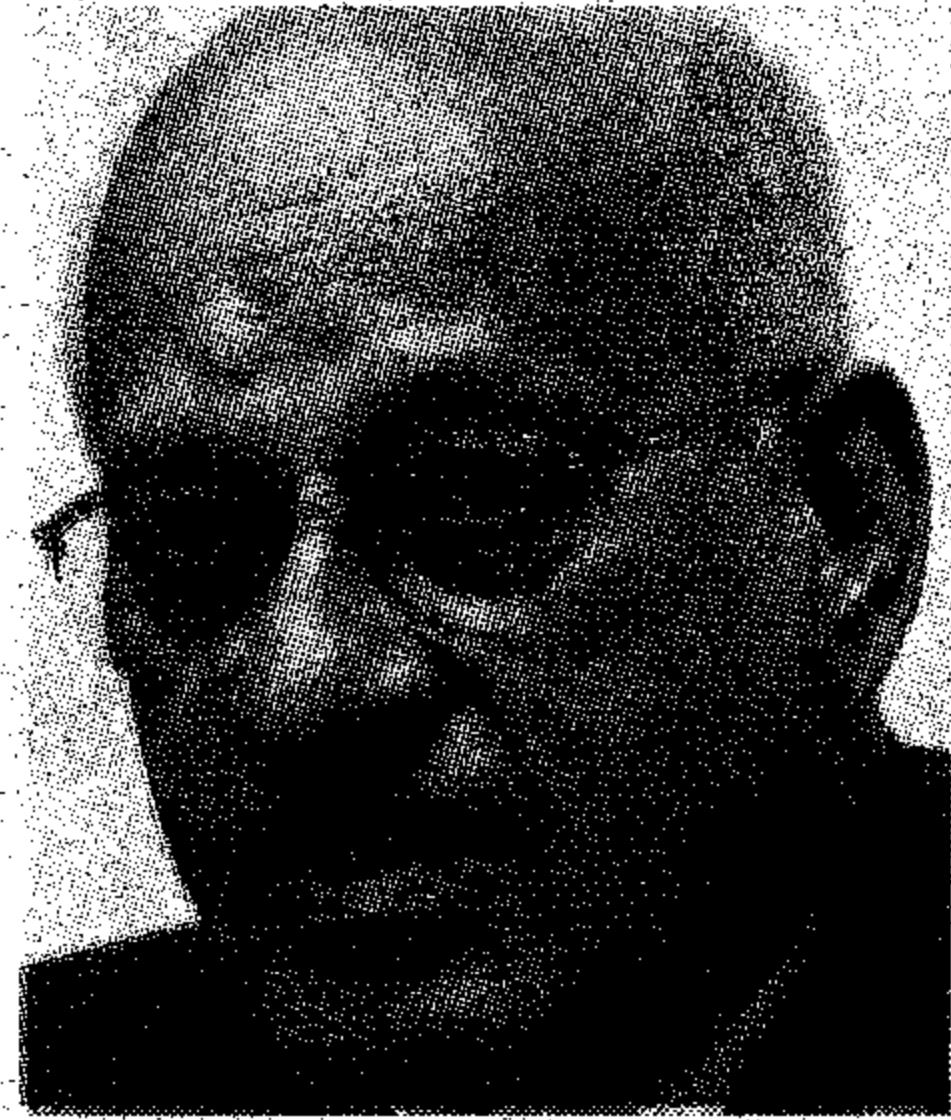

Former deputy prime minister Tun Musa Hitam will deliver the talk entitled "Recipe for National Unity in a Changing World". It is organised by the Tun Razak Foundation.

Foundation board trustee Datuk V.C. George said 1,200 people would be expected to attend, including parliamentarians, senators, politicians and students.

"Attendance is based on invitation only and so far, 600 people have confirmed their presence," he said at a press conference at Memorial Tun Razak in Jalan Perdana, yesterday.

The dinner will be held at the Sunway Resort Hotel & Spa. Other sponsors include AmBank Group, Sime Darby Bhd and Kuala Lumpur Kepong Bhd.

Present at the press conference were foundation trustee Tan Sri Michael Chen and its secretary Datuk Hasbullah Yusof.

Datuk V.C. George says the July 11 dinner will focus on Tun Razak's success in fostering unity
