

Keng Yaik: What does Kayveas know?

NST-16/3/2007

KUALA LUMPUR: Gerakan President Datuk Seri Dr Lim Keng Yaik said Datuk M. Kayveas was a schoolboy in 1969 and would not know much about politics at that time.

Chiding the People's Progressive Party (PPP) president for telling the media that Dr Lim was expelled from the MCA in 1969 and had gone to see former PPP president Datuk S.P. Seenivasagam to join the party, he said: "How can I be expelled by the MCA at that time when in 1972 I was still an MCA minister?"

"How can I apply to join PPP when I'm still a MCA member? "Our friend was still in school in 1969. What does he know?"

Dr Lim said he did not intend to respond on issues relating to Gerakan and PPP, but had to clarify a false statement.

In George Town, Gerakan secretary-general Datuk Seri Chia Kwang Chye said party members would adhere to Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak's advice not to prolong its differences with the PPP.

"We are willing to put it to rest and we hope that no more new issues will be raised by PPP. It was PPP that raised all the issues and frankly we don't know the cause of the outburst," he said.

How can I be expelled by the MCA at that time when in 1972 I was still an MCA minister? How can I apply to join PPP when I'm still an MCA member? Our friend was still in school in 1969.

Chia, who is also Deputy Information Minister, said Kayveas should also stop questioning the appointment of Gerakan Wanita head Tan Lian Hoe as the Taiping BN chief.

In Shah Alam, Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak said the Barisan Nasional Management Committee would meet to help resolve the dispute between Gerakan and the People's Progressive Party.

"At an appropriate time, we will have a meeting with the parties concerned. The time has not been set. Let them cool down first," Najib when asked to comment on the dispute.

He was speaking after launching the Innovative Product, Today's Evolution Council and witnessing the signing of the Compressed Natural Gas Bus Supply and Financing Arrangement between Nadicorp Holdings and Samsung Corporation, here.
