

> 50 YEARS AGO TODAY
NST- 27/5/2007

Friday may be holiday instead of Sunday

KUALA LUMPUR, Sun. — Many UMNO divisions want Friday to be the weekly holiday instead of Sunday after the Federation gains independence.

The Perak division passed a resolution at its annual delegates conference last week urging such a change.

A spokesman at UMNO headquarters told the Straits Times today that any such proposal would have to be approved by the general assembly of UMNO Malaya.

UMNO members argue that since Islam should be the state religion in independent Malaya, all workers should stop work on Friday, the Islamic holy day.

FOOTNOTE: Johore, Kelantan, Kedah, Terengganu and Perlis already observe Friday as a holiday.

Doctor's post

IPOH, Sun. — Dr. Vincent See Weng Sim, who graduated from Sydney University, is now attached to the General Hospital in Batu Gajah. He is a former student of St. Michael's Institution here.

Friday may be holiday instead of Sunday

KUALA LUMPUR, Sun. — Many UMNO divisions want Friday to be the weekly holiday instead of Sunday after the Federation gains independence.

The Perak division passed a resolution at its annual delegates conference last week, urging such a change.

A spokesman at UMNO headquarters told the Straits Times today any such proposal would have to be approved by the general assembly of UMNO Malaya.

UMNO members argue that since Islam should be the state religion in independent Malaya, all workers should stop work on Friday, the Islamic holy day.

FOOTNOTE: Johore, Kelantan, Kedah, Terengganu and Perlis already observe Friday as a holiday.