

*'Merdeka is pointless unless...'
warning*

KUALA LUMPUR, Sun. — Merdeka would be meaningless unless the Malays were prepared to change their ways of living and improve their standard of living, the Minister for Agriculture, Inche Abdul Aziz bin Ishak, said yesterday when he visited the people of Kampung Sanglang and Kuala Sanglang Kedah.

He urged them to improve their economic condition by forming co-operative societies, and added: "This year, 70 more inspectors and officers will help you to set up and manage local co-operatives."

Gambling evil

The Minister, who was visiting the Kubang Pasu irrigation scheme in North Kedah, also told the people to work together irrespective of the political parties to which they belonged.

He described "judi ekor" (a gambling game) as "more dangerous than Communism" and he advised them not to indulge in it but to help the Government to remove the social menace.

'Merdeka is pointless unless...'

Warning

NST-17/6/2007

KUALA LUMPUR, Sun. — Merdeka would be meaningless unless the Malays were prepared to change their ways of living and improve their standard of living, the Minister for Agriculture, Inche Abdul Aziz bin Ishak, said yesterday when he visited the people of Kampung Sanglang and Kuala Sanglang Kedah.

He urged them to improve their economic condition by forming co-operative societies, and added: "This year, 70 more inspectors and officers will help you to set up and manage local co-operatives."

Gambling evil

The Minister, who was visiting Kubang Pasu irrigation scheme in North Kedah, also told people to work together irrespective of the political parties to which they belonged.

He described "judi ekor" (a gambling game) as "more dangerous than Communism" and he advised them not to indulge but to help the Government to remove the social menace.