KUALA TERENGGANU: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi has yet to set a precise date to transfer power to Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

However, Abdullah said the leadership transition was definite and would be carried out when he and Najib reached an agreement.

"I will hand over the Prime Minister's post to him (Najib) ... that's for sure, there is no doubt that he is my replacement.

"We have yet to decide on the date. When the time is right the transition would be done in a right way once both of us have agreed," he told reporters yesterday.

On Friday, Abdullah was quoted as saying that he and Najib had reached an agreement on the right time for a leadership change.
