Charter unveiled

KUALA LUMPUR: The Barisan Nasional charter was unveiled yesterday at the BN Convention.

The BN delegates, including leaders of component parties and its president Datuk Seri Najib Razak, were led by BN executive secretary Datuk Abu Khamis to pledge their oath from the seven principles listed in the charter.

The oath was read at the closing of the one-day convention held at the MCA building here.

The principles are on upholding the Constitution and rule of law; strengthening the racial relationship; improving the economy; assuring quality education; defending the people; strengthening the family institution; and rejecting corrupt practices.

After the charter was read, Najib signed a copy, which had also been signed by all leaders of the BN component parties.
