

ISRAEL ATTACKS MALAYSIAN AID SHIP

The Spirit of Rachel Corrie, the Malaysian humanitarian-aid vessel ferrying crew members and 12 anti-war activists and journalists, leaving Port of Piraeus, Greece, for Gaza on Wednesday. They are transporting 7.5km of pipes for the restoration of the sewerage system there. Israeli naval forces intercepted and attacked the ship yesterday. No one was injured in the 20-minute attack. The ship is now anchored in Egyptian waters, about 30 nautical miles from Gaza. — NST picture by Rosdan Wahid
