Pak Lah praises Najib for policies that benefit people

NST-26/8/2012

PUTRAJAYA: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak has been praised for the hard work and efforts in leading and running the nation.

The commendation came from former prime minister Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi, who said his successor had put into place policies that would benefit the people and country.

"The people have heard and seen what he is doing for the country. Najib is committed to working hard and that is very good," he told reporters at his Hari Raya open house held at Dewan Sri Endon here yesterday. He was responding to a question on how he would compare the situation in the country in 2008 with the present.

Abdullah was accompanied by his wife, Tun Jeanne Abdullah.

On politics, he said the best thing for a leader to do was to work hard.

The large crowd who attended the open house was treated to various local delicacies.

Present were Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin and his wife, Puan Sri Noorainee Abdul Rahman, and Malacca Chief Minister Datuk Seri Mohd Ali Rustam.

Among the guests were Media Prima chairman Datuk Johan

Jaaffar and New Straits Times Press chairman Tan Sri Mohamed Jawhar Hassan.
