Dr M: It'll be a good move

KUALA LUMPUR: Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad said ministers must be transparent and sincere in whatever they do, including declaring their assets and those of family members, to the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission.

The former prime minister said that previously, ministers were required to declare their assets only to the prime minister.

"So, this is something positive if they can declare to a body that has no political interest and is neutral," he said after attending a Chinese New Year open house organised by MCA, here on Monday.
