KUALA LUMPUR: There was no pomp and ceremony to usher in his 60th birthday.

Instead, Datuk Seri Najib Razak marked the day by joining the Masjid Jamek congregation in Kampung Baru near here yesterday.

The prime minister arrived at the mosque about 5pm and joined more than 600 people in performing the asar prayers, led by imam Muhd Afiq Masron.

Najib later helped mosque committee members to distribute bubur lambuk to the public.

Mosque committee chairman Datuk Idris Shaari Mat Aris said Najib donated 140 pots of bubur lambuk to the mosque for this year's breaking of fast.

"It has been the prime minister's tradition to donate several pots of bubur lambuk for the last seven years."

He added that the committee would donate 40 pots of bubur lambuk to the Ar Rahah mosque in Lembah Pantai, named after Najib's mother Tun Rahah Mohammad Noah.
